MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIARMEN OF THE FCC CHARITY BALL COMMITTEE

We are proud that in our short seven years in existence that we have accomplished so much and have made such a significant difference in so many lives.

Our scholarship program now has graduates which are in the workplace and are doing well thanks to your generosity.

Our Language Training Program is showing amazing results, the children are speaking in English and Putonghua and are much more confident in themselves, able to approach individuals and adults outside their normal comfort zone and communicate with them.

Again, this is thanks to your generosity.

The Language Training Program is so successful that we now see the need to open our second school which will be located in one of the poorest areas of Hong Kong giving free language education to 600 needy students, giving them the tools required to get a decent job in our society.

We can't emphasize enough that our programs are unique and every penny donated goes straight to the needy student, no sidetracks, no administration costs.

We are here for the long haul and intend to raise the bar each year to bring education to those who deserve it but find it out of their reach due to economic reasons.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE PO LEUNG KUK

The Sixth Annual Charity Ball was again a huge success, bringing us a fun-filled and memorable evening whilst contributing to the well-being of many underprivileged children in Hong Kong. The success of the Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong (FCC) in bringing this year's charitable proceeds to a record high of over HK$5,000,000 well reflects the recognition that this joint charity project has earned from the community at large.

FCC has been actively promoting the welfare of the underprivileged in Hong Kong. It is the seventh year since the inaugural FCC Ball in 2002, and this meaningful project has seen tremendous growth over the years. On behalf of Po Leung Kuk, I would like to extend our most sincere gratitude to the FCC Ball Committee Members, sponsors and partners who have contributed so much in making many worthwhile initiatives come true. We will continue to do our best and work with the FCC in enhancing our care and services to the less fortunate.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS' CLUB HONG KONG

Ladies and Gentlemen

As President of the Hong Kong Foreign Correspondents' Club, one of my more pleasant duties is to thank you for your generous support of the Foreign Correspondents' Club Charity Fund.

Annually, our fund has grown in both popularity and effectiveness, and it is thanks to your generous contributions that we have been able to enjoy such success, and to share it with the children of the Po Leung Kuk.

As a Club, we're now known for our ability to have a good time whilst raising funds to aid those less fortunate, and we'll continue to demonstrate those collective talents once again this year - feel free to join in!

But please also feel free to help us with the serious part of our efforts, which is the raising of funds to support our scholarship and Language Training programmes.

Both programmes have provided access to higher education for a remarkable group of intelligent and hard-working young people and with your support we will be able to continue and expand this group of students in our scholarship programme and provide other students with the skills they need to advance and prosper in the international marketplace that is Hong Kong with our Language Training Program.

It takes a lot time and effort to make these efforts possible, and I'd like to acknowledge a number of people; first among them being David Garcia. One of the original co-founders of the Charity Fund, Dave continues to be a driving force behind the scenes each year. He does, however, have a tremendous amount of support, with not only the broad shoulders of Co-Chairman Andy Chworowsky to lean on, but the strong sinews and indomitable spirit of the rest of the Committee members to back him up as well.

And of course, the FCC's General Manager Gilbert Cheng and the fantastic FCC staff have once again risen to the occasion, as have the excellent staff and board members of Po Leung Kuk. Please join me in recognizing and applauding their efforts.

Don't forget to get out your chequebook and join us in helping to make a difference in the lives of an amazing group of young people.

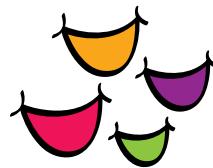

Sincerely,

Program

The English Language Centre (ELC) of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University is pleased to have supported the Po Leung Kuk and the Foreign Correspondents' Club in the establishment and development of the Language Training Programme (LTP). We regard the programme as a worthy cause, considering the vital role of language in Hong Kong society where it is increasingly crucial for our young people to be trilingual to succeed in both education and the workplace.

We are happy to have provided consultancy, observations and meetings on a wide range of topics from development of the curriculum to classroom management. We are particularly pleased to see the LTP is firmly established and achieving its goals.

Over the past three years, the ELC has made considerable efforts to contribute to the LTP, and fully intends to continue support of this worthy programme as part of its service to the community in Hong Kong and to the Chinese Mainland.

香港理工大學英語教學中心深感榮幸能有機會與保良局及香港外國記者會合作，籌辦及發展此語文培訓計劃。在現今香港社會，語文的重要性毋容置疑，各界對青年人的語文能力要求甚高，他們必需具備良好的兩文三語方可日後獲得較佳的進修機會及在工作上充份發揮其表現。

過去三年，我們非常高興為語文培訓計劃作義務顧問，協辦一系列關於課程發展及課堂管理的工作坊、會議及視學等；並參與招聘「項目總監」一職，以助此語言計劃邁向更成功的一步。

英語教學中心樂意積極參與語文培訓計劃，並會繼續支持這富有意義的服務，為中國及香港社群作出貢獻。

The Language Training Programme is well into its fourth year and is now providing language training to around 300 children in residential care homes at Po Leung Kuk. The partnership with the FCC and Po Leung Kuk is proving to be a very successful one as it is helping to achieve a common goal: providing real help to children in need.

With the money raised from the FCC Charity Fund and matching funds from Po Leung Kuk, as well as sizeable donations from JPMorgan Chase Foundation, the programme has continued to grow. Since the arrival of Michelle McEwan (Director of Studies) just over a year ago, the programme has been further developed both inside and outside the classroom. The team of dedicated teachers and support staff have made continued inroads into achieving the aims of the programme: to teach children to be biliterate, in English and Chinese, and trilingual, in English, Putonghua as well as Cantonese, in order to equip them with communication skills needed for their futures.

Classes are arranged for the 2 – 18 year olds to generate interest and provide activities to facilitate language learning. An example of this is the introduction of ‘elective’ style classes for secondary school students that have been developed at the specific request of students who are close to entering the workplace or higher education e.g. job seeking skills. The English Language Centre of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, as academic partner, has continued to consult and support the programme to safeguard standards.

One of the measures of success of the programme was recently witnessed at the Second LTP Singing Contest and a production of The Sound of Music for programme students. The confidence, proficiency and overall enthusiasm of the performers were enjoyed by audience and performers alike. Early last year children also attended an English Camp at Lei Yu Mun which provided further opportunity to develop confidence and proficiency.

The future of the programme aims to build on such success. With this in mind a new centre is being planned to further spread our support and help make a difference to disadvantaged children living in our society.

語文培訓計劃推行至今已踏入第四年，目前正為保良局轄下兒童宿舍約300名兒童提供語言培訓，可見香港外國記者會及保良局的合作非常成功，而這亦有利於達成雙方的共同目標：為有需要的兒童提供實際援助。

本計劃獲得香港外國記者會慈善基金及保良局配對撥款支持，加上摩根大通基金慷慨捐輸，得以持續發展。自Michelle McEwan擔任項目總監以來，在短短一年時間內，本計劃在課室內外皆已有了長足的發展。導師和職員均盡心盡力，互相支持，共同努力向計劃目標邁進——為兒童提供語言培訓，加強他們兩文三語的能力，並提升溝通技巧，以為將來作好準備。

為培養學習興趣，本計劃為2至18歲兒童安排上課，並以活動配合，促進語言學習，例如引入專為中學生而設的「選修」形式課堂，向即將投身工作或接受高等教育的學生傳授實用知識，如求職技巧等。作為學術上的合作夥伴，香港理工大學英語教學中心一直擔當此計劃的義務顧問，並為計劃提供支援，以確保培訓水準。

我們舉辦了第二屆語文培訓計劃歌唱比賽，並演出音樂劇「仙樂飄飄處處聞」，以估量計劃的成效。演出學生的自信、語文能力及熱誠皆備受觀眾讚賞。不論是觀眾還是演出者，均十分享受是次活動。於去年年初，本計劃的兒童亦參加了設於鯉魚門的英語交流營，獲得進一步提升自信及語文能力的機會。

繼續發揮上述成果，是本計劃的未來目標。心懷此項目標，我們正準備創建一個新的培訓中心，以便為社會上有需要的兒童提供更多支援，協助他們創造美好未來。

JIMMY BUFFETT HONG KONG CONCERT ORGANIZERS APOLOGIZE TO BUFFETT FANS

By Thomas Crampton and Dave Garcia

s members of the committee organizing for the Jimmy Buffett concert in January we would like to apologize.

Why apologize for a sell-out concert organized in less than six months raising more than $420,000 for Hong Kong's neediest children?

Why apologize for a concert that had normally rational people wearing tailor-made Hawaiian shirts and going hoarse belting such hits as "Margaritaville" and "Come Monday"?

Just ask the many devoted fans who couldn't get a ticket to the show.

As messages begging for tickets were left on Tom Crampton's blog and strangers started tracking down Dave Garcia's personal phone number, we understood our major miscalculation Jimmy Buffett's appeal to devotees in Hong Kong, China, Thailand, the Philippines and beyond.

Buffett himself was confident of success from beginning. So confident, in fact, that he not only flew out with his band and gave the concert for free, but he also paid for the beer and tequila and donated the proceeds from the sales to the charity.

Every time we faced a problem, Jimmy emailed back: "But there must be a Parrot Head who can help us out with this."

For those who don't know, Parrot Heads are die hard Buffett fans. They wear colorful Hawaiian shirts and follow Jimmy Buffett around everywhere he plays. One such fan flew from Florida to Hong Kong with her daughter for three days to attend the concert. It was her first visit to Asia.

Truth is, we had no idea how big Jimmy's first-ever appearance in Hong Kong would become. The concert outstripped all expectations, drawing fans from around Asia and we now realize that we could easily have sold 3,000 tickets instead of 650.

Convincing Jimmy to come to Hong Kong started with journalist PJ O'Rourke, a friend of Buffett's, telling him on beach in Mexico that he should come to Hong Kong and support the FCC Charity Fund. Tom Crampton followed up when meeting Buffett in Paris last summer. Merrill Lynch and Dennis Ziengs then stepped in as lead sponsors and the party was on.

Our first warning signal of Jimmy's popularity came when the "coconut telegraph" sold one third of the tickets within a week and before we even publicly announced the event.

Since the concert was held to support the Foreign Correspondents' Club Charity Fund, we did not want to spend money advertising. Advertising costs money that should go to scholarships and supporting the FCC Language Center.

The second warning sign came when the original venue fell through and the Football Club came to our rescue. Despite the extra size of the Football Club, we managed to sell all 650 seats in no time.

Another warning: The South China Morning Post, Bloomberg and Fortune magazine all lined up to interview him. In addition to the highly enthusiastic fans for his music, Buffett runs a series of very successful businesses, ranging from the Margaritaville restaurants to his own brand of tequila.

The final warning - when it was too late to change anything - came with Jimmy's arrival in Hong Kong.

Never have so many offers flooded in to help out an artist playing for the FCC Charity Fund. People called to offer sailboats, cars, vacation homes and even said they planned to outbid the top sponsor for the next ball.

One fan said he would make a $50,000 donation to the Charity Fund in exchange for just shaking Jimmy's hand.

While visiting the charity during his visit, Jimmy led the kids in singing the Hokey Pokey and had such fun we actually had trouble getting him out.

From the first strum of his guitar it became clear this was no ordinary concert. Not only did fans dress up in elaborate Parrot Head outfits – Hawaiian shirts and flip flops – but they sang all the lyrics to songs louder than Buffett himself.

He played for more than two hours and added the song "Somewhere Over China" to the playlist for the first time in 14 years.

The good news for Buffett fans: Jimmy loved the fans, Hong Kong and the charity so much, he plans to return next year.
